1. POSITION CONTEXT & SUMMARY OF POSITION

Consistent with the Agency mission, Strengthening Families to Build Vibrant Communities, the Hume Riverina Community Legal Service (HRCLS) is a program auspiced by Upper Murray Family Care (UMFC). HRCLS is part of a national community legal sector, providing legal assistance to people experiencing financial disadvantage or otherwise disadvantaged in their access to justice in North East Victoria and the Southern Riverina of NSW. HRCLS prioritises working in partnerships and using early intervention strategies such as community development, legal education and law and policy reform projects to inform, strengthen and empower the community we serve.

This position has been made possible due to funding received through the National Legal Assistance Partnership 2020-25 (NLAP) from the Commonwealth for the delivery of legal assistance services to people experiencing poor mental health. Our funding will be used to target and embed an integrated health justice partnership with the Social & Emotional Wellbeing (SEW) Team of Albury Wodonga Aboriginal Health Service

(AWAHS) called Bagaraybang bagaraybang mayinyalang (BBM): Empowering & Alleviating: A Health Justice Partnership offering legal support for social & emotional wellbeing.

Under the direction of the Acting Principal Lawyer - Generalist, the primary role of the Community and Legal Engagement Worker (CLEW) is to be present at AWAHS 3 days a week to connect with the community, build relationships and develop and strengthen the partnership. The CLEW will build the capacity of AWAHS staff and clients to address legal problems through early intervention, building knowledge and understanding of the law and helping to break down the barriers in accessing legal services. The CLEW will support the BBM lawyer in providing intake, triage and risk assessment support together with the provision of information & referrals to clients of AWAHS, with a particular focus on those affected by poor mental health as well as providing community legal education (CLE), undertaking community development, policy development and law reform/advocacy. This role includes working in partnership with AWAHS & working collaboratively with other service providers. There is also a component of broader network & sector responsibilities which include maintaining and promoting relationships with Specialist CLCs, active involvement in sector & HJP networks etc.
